(U) Carmichael – Truck Driver Kills One, Attacks Three Others

(U) An armed person was shot Monday morning in Carmichael after the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office says he hit two people with a pickup truck, killing one victim, and attacked two others. Sacramento County deputies say a 911 caller reported two people were shooting at each other just after 9 a.m. in Carmichael. Once at the scene, deputies found a woman had shot someone who attacked her husband. That person was hospitalized, and the sheriff's office learned he had attacked at least three other people prior to the shooting.

(U) Los Angeles – Five Charged in Scheme to Export Imaging Scopes, Night Vision Goggles to Russia

(U) A federal grand jury in Los Angeles unsealed an indictment Thursday that accuses five defendants of conspiring to unlawfully export defense articles to Russia. Specifically, the defendants allegedly exported thermal imaging riflescopes and night-vision goggles without a license, in violation of the Arms Export Control Act. According to court documents, the defendants were arrested on 17 June for their roles in a nearly four-year scheme in which they purchased dozens of thermal imaging devices, most of which cost between $5,000 and $10,000, by using aliases and falsely assuring the sellers that they would not export the items from the United States.
